

Structure Interview

Overview

The interview contains questions regarding the event that you witnessed. Every detail can be of importance. Your cooperation is appreciated. When answering the questions, it is important to read the questions well and follow the given instructions. Try to answer every question with as much detail as possible. It is important that you answer the questions individually; do not ask others for help.

First we will ask you for your personal information, then we will continue on to questions regarding what you have witnessed. In the end you will see a declaration that should be checked by you, and if necessary, adjusted. If the declaration is correct, you will sign it. That concludes the interview.

Instructions / Preparations

Before the interview starts, take some time to fully remember the event. Try to concentrate and think about the following things:

- Where you were
- What you were doing
- Who you were with
- How you felt
- What happened
- Who was involved
- What you saw
- What you heard
- What you smelled

It may help to close your eyes while remembering the event.
